NEW YORK HERALD

BROADWAY AND ANN STREET.

JAMES GORDON BENNETT. PROPRIETOR.

The New York Branco is published in New York, in London and in Paris, enden and in Paris.

Published every day in the year.
Bally three rents pier copy. Sunday five cents.
TERMS TO SUBSCRIBERS, FREE OF POSTAGE in a United States (ontside of New York city limits), and Canada and Menico — ALLY, WITH SUNDAYS, one year.

SIO CO.
ALLY, WITH SUNDAYS, six months.

500
ALLY, WITH SUNDAYS, six months.

500
ALLY, WITH SUNDAYS, six months.

250
ALLY, WITH SUNDAYS, three months.

250
ALLY, WITH SUNDAYS, three months.

260
ALLY, WITH SUNDAYS, one month.

800
ALLY, WITH SUNDAYS, one month.

800
ALLY, WITH SUNDAYS, one month.

800
NDAY EDITION ONLY.

260
EEKLY, one year.

SENDAY EDITION ONLY.

2 00
WEEKLY, one year
1 00
NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.—Result in draft on New York or Post Office manny order, and where notities of these can be precured and the manny in a registered latter. All memey remisted at risk of sender. In order to insure attention subscribers whishing their addresses changed unist give their old as well as their new ad-changed must give their old as well as their new address.

WEENLY HERALD.—One dollar peryear in the United States. Canada and Maxico, and one dollar and firty container year in Europe and all places within the postal brion, free of pustage in all cases, all business, news. letters or telegraphic despatches must be addressed Naw Yonk Hakald.

Letters and packages must be properly sealed.

Rejected communications will not be returned.

Entered at the Post Office, New York, N. Y., as second class matter.

HERALD UPTOWN OFFICE-CORNER PIFTH AVE-NUE AND TWENTY-THIRD STREET.

PARIS EDITION.
Published every day in the year.
Price FIFTEEN CENTIMES in FRANCE and TWENTY CENTIMES chawber.
TERMS TO SUBSCRIBERS—FREE OF POSTAGE.

TERMS TO SURSCHIRERS—PRIX OF POSTAGE.

DAILY (INCLIDING SUNDAY).

Paris.

Prince.

France.

France.

France.

4 50 5 5 15

HA 50 15 15

HIN MONTHS 13.50 16 18

HIN MONTHS 27.00 30 36

ONE YEAR 50.00 5870

SUMMAY EDITION ONLY.

Paris.

France.

France.

France.

France.

France.

France.

PARIS OFFICE-NO. 49 AVENUE DE L'OPERA. LONDON EDITION.
Published every Sunday morning in London.
LONDON OFFICE-NO. 110 STRAND, W. C.
Subscriptions and advercisements for the New York edition will be received at the London and Paris offices and forwarded at the same terms as in New York.
All the editions are for sale at the main and branch offices in New York and at the foreign branches.

THE HERALD READING ROOMS.

The HERALD calls attention to the fact that Messrs. Eduard Saarbach & Co., the general agents of the paper in Gormany, have opened the following HeralD Reading Rooms in the principal cities of Gormany. Each of these Reading Rooms is supplied with the leading American, English and German newspapers:—

ERADICA HOOMS.

BERLIS.—Dresder Bank, No. 28 Bebrenstrasse.
DRISON-Richert Thode & Co., No. 1 Wilsrufferstrasse, HAMBURG.—Angle-Deutsche Bank, No. 20 Hermann-attrasse.

Arrane Andrew Arranth, Nachod & Kuhne, No. 9 Bruhl.

Merrane on Russ - Edward Saarbach & Co., No. 1 Cinrastrasso.

Mexicus Mork Fink & Co., No. 4 Pfandbaustrasse.

Sturmant-Stahl & Federer, No. 26 Calberstrasso.

AMUSEMENTS TO-DAY AND EVENING. STAR THEATRE-THE SENATOR, 8 P. M.

BROADWAY THEATRE-GANKLON, S.P. M. NIBLO'S-BARES IN THE WOOD, 2 P. M.; S.P. M. PEOPLE'S THEATRE-MARRIND, S.P. M. METROPOLITAN OPERA HOUSE-DIS MEISTERSINGER ACADEMY-JOSHUA WITTEOMR, 8:15 P. M. AMBERG'S THEATRE-DEE ARME JONATHAN, S.P. M. GRAND OPERA HOUSE-MONEY MAD, 2 P. M.; S.P. M. HERRMANN'S THEATRE-HERRMANN, 2 P. M.; 8:30 HARLEM OPERA HOUSE-THE, CITY DIRECTORY, 8:15

HARRIGAN'S THEATRE-RELEV AND THE 400, 2 P. M.; CASINO-POOR JONATHAN, 8:15 P. M.

LYCEUM THEATRE-THE TOLKE, 8:30 P. M. STANDARD THEATRE-LAYER ON, 8:15 P. M. TONY PASTOR'S-SPECIALTY COMPANY, S P. M. MADISON SQUARE THEATRE-THE SILVER SHIELD,

NEW PARK THEATRE-THE LUMPUTIANS, 2:15 P. M.; PROCTOR'S THEATRE-MEN AND WOMEN, 2 P. M.; 8:15 FOURTEENTH STREET THEATRE-BLUE JEANS, 2 P. M. 8:10 P. M.

WINDSOR THEATRE-MCKENNA'S FLIRTATION, 2-P. M.; GARDEN THEATRE-BEAU BRUMMER, 8:30 P. M. BIJOU THEATRE-A TEXAS STEER, 2 P. M.; S:15 P. M.

PALMER'S THEATRE-JUDAM, 8:15 P. M. EDEN MUSEE-OTERO, & P. M. KOSTER & BIAL'S-CARRENCITA, 2 P. M.; S P. M.

AMERICAN ART GALLERIES-Paintings by three American artists. WORTH'S MUSEUM-Hourly performances. DORIS' MUSEE-Hourly performances.

MUSEUM-Hourly performances.

NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 14, 1891.

TRIPLE SHEET WITH SUPPLEMENT

This paper has the largest circulation in the United States.

Notice is hereby given to the public that no person is authorized to solicit advertisements or subscriptions for this paper and that it employs no agents whatever.

HIGH WATER MARK.

Cable messages for all parts of Europe direc received at the company's branch office in the Daily and Sunday Herald is bona fide, and HERALD Building, corner of Broadway and the figures published do not include weekly

To Our READERS, -The HERALD to-day consists of a twelve page paper, with supplement, making fourteen pages in all. Our readers should see that their newsdealers deliver them the entire paper.

The weather to-day in New York and its vicinity functuding points within thirty miles of national capital, the city) promises to be warmer and partly cloudy, followed by increasing cloudiness and snow or rain. To-morrow it promises to be from likely to come up in Congress to-day. cloudy to partly cloudy and warmer, preceded by rain or snow, and followed by clearing, colder weather.

SUMMARY OF THE NEWS.

The Paris Siècle gives prominence to the statement that Mr. John Dillon will become the leader of the Irish Parliamentary party. Despatches from London are to the effect that

It is believed that the Indian war is about over. though there may be some trouble when the savtopic in the street. Both houses of Congress, it is understood, will to-day have presented to them resolutions of protest against the action of the British government Sea case while diplomatic negetiations were still in progress.

Senator Leland Stanford, of California, was reelected in both branches of the Legislature of that State.

Speaker Sheehan appointed his committees and a bill for the enumeration of the State was introduced in the Assembly.

Farmers' Alliance men captured all the offices of the Kansas House.

All the democratic candidates on the State ticket in Connecticut were sworn in by the democratic Senate. The republican officials who hold over refused to surrender their offices and a dual government exists.

Bishop Littlejohn has refused to give Father Ignatius, the English monk, a license to preach in the diocese of Long Island.

New Brunswick, was driven ashore off Beliport, tional negotiations. L. I. Two of the crew were drowned.

The cruiser Concord made a successful horsepower trial in Long Island Sound.

George M. Bartholomew, the defaulting president turned to Hartford, Conn., after four years' exile in Canada and was sentenced to State Prison for victed of conspiracy to secure a divorce for James A. Flack.

The Supreme Court General Term affirmed the recent decision of Judge Ingraham in the Sugar

Society at its sixth annual dinner at the Lenox Ly- | diplomatic or political department of our HERALD readers take up the task of criticising bogus benefit co-operative societies and urge on A Coroner's jury found that Michael J. Gallivan, Patrolman William Smith was declared by a Coroner's jury to have caused his wife's death by Articles purporting to have been clipped from the HERALD have been circulated by green goods men. They are forgeries.

Naver Print a paid advertisement as news Wisconsin Editorial Association. Milwaukee, | national comity. July 24, 1888.

A Stony Is Told of an advertiser who presented himself at the New York HERALD counter witha three thousand do lar roll as an offer for a half column advertisement with a good sized cut accompanying it. The "ad." was refused without even consulting Mr. Howland. There is a standing rule in the Herald office to never insert advertising outs .- Exchange.

THE EXPENDITURES FOR PENSIONS for the year ending June 30, as now officially stated, amounted to $109,357,534. In the previous year we paid $87,644,779 11, while in the year before that we paid $50,288,508 77. UNION SQUARE THEATRE—COUNTY PAIR, 8:15 P. M.
COLUMBUS THEATRE—AFTER DARK, 2P. M.; 8:15 P. M.
DALY'S THEATRE—THE LAST WORD, 2 P. M.; 8:15 P. M.

The cost of the German army, it may be interesting to note, is for this year estimated at $91,726,293. Besides our pensions our The cost of the German army, it may be inarmy costs $30,000,000.

HERALD ADVERTISING.

INCREASE IN NUMBER OF C
1889 over 1888			1,295
1890 over 1889		gain	1,534
Total gain, two years			2,829
Tue gain is distribut
		1800 over 18	89.
Co	lumns.	Columna.
First quarter gains	256	379
Second " yains		462
Third " gains	187	434
Fourth " gains	564	259
	1,295	1,534

Fourth "	gains 564	259
	1,295	1,534
Total		2,8
Under the	e following clas	s fications:
	1880 over 188	38. 1890 over 1880.
		Columnz.
Help and sit
	gain 445	434
To lets and bo		189
Real estate		190

166 104 313 1,295 1,534 2,529 Tue increase in number of separate advertisements during the two years is 119,051,

1889	0 over 1888.	1890 over 1839.
First quartergains Second "gains Third "gains Fourth "gains	10,001 8,346 10,596 21,329	16,699 18,755 16,644 16,781
	50,172	68,879

HERALD CIRCULATION. The increase in Harand circulation is equally satisfactory, as is shown by the following figures for the last week in Decem-Circulation...190,500 ber, 1890 (ending Saturday, December 27), compared with the same week in 1889-

viz.:-	-
Sunday, December 21. increase Monday, December 22. increase Tuesday, December 23. increase Wednesday, December 24. increase Thursday, December 25. increase Friday, December 26. increase	9,400 10,300 12,300 9,800 11,800
Saturday, December 27 increase	11,2

Total increase (one week) N. B.-Attention is called to the following facts :-First-The above comparative statements of increase in Harand advertising are not based upon columns reduced in wid h. Second-The Henald does not publish "fake" advertising ; and Third-The increase in circulation of the and sem -weekly editions nor half-price evening editions.

The Bearing Sea Situation. As will be seen by reference to our Washington despatches the latest move by Great Britain in the Behring Sea controversy has fortunate creatures will be properly housed created a profound impression in the

Mr. Blaine on the subject and the matter is of public sympathy. The demented men

Indeed, a proceeding so extraordinary can hardly be allowed to pass without some diplomatic or other protest from Washing- | transferred to State asylums, where expert ton. Diplomatic intercourse and inter- physicians and nurses will do all that can be national comity can only suffer by letting go | done for their relief, unnoticed an unusual course at variance with both.

The more the step is considered the the Chillean outbreak has not assumed the proper. | greater the mistake of Lord Salisbury appears | but it has been to the interest of certain to be. For it is evident that Great Britain | politicians to misrepresent this measure and has everything to lose and nothing to gain to defeat it. They get a little petty patronby its unprecedented application to our dollars of the Clearing flouse certificates were cancelled. The free coinage of silver is the deminant that tribunal of the important questions involved in the Behring Sea dispute would simplify if not settle the controversy, and would therefore be highly advantageous to tunity. in appealing to the Supreme Court in the Behring | both England and the United States. But | when we say this we mean an opinion rendered in a proceeding regularly and properly brought.

The objection to the course taken by Great Britain is that it has the appearance of a coup, a secret flank movement, to get before another tribunal a great diplomatic issue still under diplomatic discussion.

Such a step could be properly taken only with the diplomatic concurrence of our government or after the termination of the diplomatic controversy. To take it without such concurrence and with that cortroversy still in progress is simply to ignore if not to affront the department of our govern-In the storm the two-masted schooner Otter, of ment intrusted with the conduct of interna-

We have said that Great Britain has nothing to gain by this unprecedented proceeding. It is more than doubtful whether the of the Charter Oak Life Insurance Company, re- Court will grant its application to proceed in the matter-whether it will recognize any standing in court on the part of that The Court of Appeals has granted a new trial to government. Does England seek redress ex-Sheriff James A. Flack and William Flack, conforthe owner of the seized sealer? Such redress must be sought by the owner himself. Is its purpose to secure the determination of an international question? If so it will be courteously informed that such Novel features were introduced by the Holland issues fall within the jurisdiction of the government. The chances then are that England will be thrown out of court. But even should its standing be recognized and its application livery stable keeper, killed James Cummings in favorably received it could gain nothing by success that would not be secured in the individual case of the owner. The questions raised in each proceeding are the same.

The rights affirmed would be the same. Hence, had Great Britain left the aggrieved vessel owner to seek alone his own remedy, that government would be in a matter. Let every advertisement appear as position to take advantage of a favorable an advertisement-no sailing under false | decision without being called to account for colors .- (harles A. Dana's Address to the a breach of diplomatic etiquette and inter-

It is, of course, open to Lord Salisbury to disavow the proceeding and direct the application to be withdraws. This he can still do with honor to his country and credit to himself. But he can hardly expect the case of England to be pressed in the Supreme Court and at the same time its friendly diplomatic consideration continue uninterruptedly.

A Safeguard for Freemen, Not a Shield for Criminals.

We are glad to see that the habeas corpus abuse to which the HERALD has called public attention and which simply menaces the law of capital punishment in every State of the Union is to receive the consideration of Congress.

The writ of habeas corpus is a bulwark of freedom. It is one of the great safeguards of personal liberty.

Is a person the victim of tyranny? Is a citizen held in prison or doomed to death sort sacrifices the substance of the law and without due warrant of law? 'Let the prisoner be brought into open court, that the justice of his detention may be ascertained." That is the command of the law embodied in a writ of habeas corpus.

can be supreme. No freeman can be deprived of life or liberty except by the law of the land. Such fa boon is not to be limits value or curtail its usefulness.

to protect the innocent is not to be made the means of clearing the guilty. A safeguard for freemen is not a shield for crimi-

Senator Edmunds thinks there is a misapprehension as to the law. But the Senator himself is evidently laboring under a misapprehension.

As the Harand has shown, the writ under the existing law of Congress is an open door to abuses of alarming magnitude and reach. The law of capital punishment in any, in every, State of the Union may be indefinitely postponed. As fast as murderers are sentenced to death by the Sate cours the sentence may be stayed by a mere application for habeas corpus made to a federal judge by the murderer's attorney. However frivoxion denying the application. When one application is disposed of another may be brought.

That simply makes the courts and the administration of criminal justice in every S are subject to the will of any condemned murderer or unscrupulous attorney. The remedy is to amend the federal statutes by giving a federal judge carefully restricted discretion to grant or deny a stay. If it is thought unsafe or inexpedient to leave such discretion to one judge, it may be extended to two or three.

That would prevent the extraordinary abuse now possible without impairing the value of the writ of habeas corpus.

Our Insane,

Mr. Acker will at once introduce an appropriation bill in Albany calling for half a million of money in aid of State care for the

If that sum is promptly voted work may be begun the moment the frost is out of the ground, and by next autumn these poor, unand cared for.

The object of the charitable folk who Of course Lord Salisbury will hear from have this matter in charge is entirely worthy and women who are now confined in county workhouses, where they are poorly cared for and where recovery is impossible, should be

> It is an unspeakable shame that we have Whitney. delayed this movement so long. We are a charitable people and a generous people, age, have command of a few votes, and for

Gentlemen, vote that appropriation, the whole of it, and do it at the earliest oppor-

Haussmann.

So Haussmann, the "great Baron," bas gone over to the majority, and with his death goes one of the most striking historic figures of our time.

The names of Louis Napoleon and Baron Haussmann will live or die together. The BOSTON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA. Emperor's was the head, but the Baron's was the hand which remodelled Paris and made it not only the most interesting but Herr Artur Nikisch Leads and the most beautiful of modern cities,

It would be hard to exaggerate the importance of the influence Baron Haussmann had on the life, the health and the architecture of his time.

From Paris, which of course felt it most, it spread to Italy and Belgium and beyond. Berlin and St. Petersburg have been affected by his example. Rome, Turin and Vienna have been Haussmannized.

Haussmann created the type which the great cities of France have ever since been striving to approach. The type of which the Cannebière at Marseilles, the Rue de Paris at Havre, the main streets of Bordeaux, of Tours, of Nantes, are imitations.

His ideal was the ideal of the Ecole Polytechnique. He worshipped the straight line. Breadth, space, light, air, were what he substituted for the tortuous and picturesque.

They will tell you that his motive in widening the streets of the "Ville-Lumière" was strategical. And it may have been, But what matter the motive if the result be so beneficent?

"Sire, your capital smells badly," was the remark once made to a French monarch.

Even after the Haussmannizing process to which it has been subjected, Paris has at moments 'an ancient and a fishlike" odor peculiarly trying to foreign nostrils. Compare it with the Paris of fifty, nay thirty, years ago, however, and the improvement in wholesomeness and cleanliness is startling. The Baron's architectural reforms may have made it easier to quell rioting. They have certainly made life more cheerful and more healthful.

The Second Empire owes its chief glory and its most enduring monument to the Prefect who rebuilt Paris.

French radicals are iconoclasts, but they have respected the name of Haussmann.

It still adorns the corners of one avenue in Paris, and for the sake of common sense and public decency let us hope it may continue to adorn it. For, whatever his political sins, the dead Baron helped progress. And if we have rolled along the boulevards on our summer tours, admiring the beauty, the splendor and the harmony of the French capital, we must have felt that the world would have lost heavily had he not been born, Triump's of the Divorce Conspirators.

The action of the Court of Appeals in setting aside the conviction of the Flack divorce conspirators is another of those too common decisions by which the tribunal of last rethe ends of justice to some fine spun legal technicality.

ited by any restrictions which will impair a point of law which it was his right and sole province of the jury to determine. There is no pretence that this remark in-> have found no other verdict. The secret, irregular methods resorted to to secure the divorce were clearly illegal, and the conspiracy as clearly showed a criminal intent. It is encouraging to note that two members of the Court-Eurl and Gray-dissented from an opinion calculated to defeat instead of promote justice.

The Advancing Storm. The storm advancing east last night over the lakes is likely to become severe off the Atlantic consts to-night and to-morrow. After the scathing of the Ward line lous the pretext given, however flagrant the steamer City of Washington in Sunday's abuse of the petition, the arm of the State gale near Cape Hatteras, coastwise navigalaw is stayed by the appeal from the deci- tion just now must be conducted with unusual caution.

PEAJACKETS FOR 220 BOYS.

70-MORROW IS THE LAST CHANCE FOR HOLD-ERS OF NON-PRESENTED TICKETS.

Although a great number of boys gathered about Hearn's Building in West Thirteenth sireet yesterday morning, but few of them had tickets for the penjackots and the rest went away disappointed. Now the boys are given their last opportunity to get a pealacket. All those having tickets must present them to-morrow morning between eight and ten o'clock or their tickets will be vold. It is and ten o'clock or their tickets will be vold. It is supposed that some of the tickets have been sold to the second hand ciothing dealers and that they are afraid to present them. If they present them the tickets will be taken away and no coats will be given in exchange for them.

Now remember, boys, to-morrow is the last day, and if you don't present your tickets then you need not present them at all.

All boys that have left their measure with James A, Hearn & Son and have been told to call on January 21 should do so, for their coats will be ready on that day. Those that were told to call on the 15th will call to-morrow and get their coats. About welve peajackets were given out yesterday, leaving about 230 still on hand.

Agentleman stopped a little newsboy on Park row yesterday and said, "is that a Hauath peajacket?"

"Yes, sir," the boy auswored.

"Yes, sir," the boy answered.
"And how do you like it?" asked the gentleman.
"Bully and warm," said the boy, and the gentleman walked away with a happy snulle on his face.
He was Kriss Kringle himself, but the boy did not suspect it.

WESTERN NATIONAL BANK.

The annual election of directors of the Western National Bank took place yesterday. All of the present board but one were re-elected. Mr. Lombresent board on one were re-occeed. Ar Lom-bard takes the place of E. J. Berwind, president or the Colorado Cual and Iron Company. The fol-lowing is the new board:— Brayton Ives, Valentine P. Snyder, Charles J. Canda, William N. Cole, 3r.; Chauncey M. Depew, Louis Fitzgeraid, Marcelius Hartiey, Henry B. Hyde, William A. Lombard, F. O. Maithiesen, John E. Searles, Jr.; Sidney F. Tylor and William C. Whitney.

W. & J. SLOANE INCORPORATED.

W. & J. Sloane, the carpet manufacturers of No. 884 Brondway, filed articles of incorporation at Al-bany yesterday, the name of the company remain-ing unchanged.

MAKES MELODY.

An Evening with the Society at the Opera House.

Frau Nikisch Sings.

The Opera House presented a wonderfully brilliant appearance last night when the Metropolitan Musical Society gave its annual concert.

As usual the band and choir were under the direction of Mr. W. R. Chapman. The band was reeruited from among Mr. Thomas' followers. The so-loists were Miss Mary Howe, the soprano; M. Plane!, the well known Paris violinist, and Mr. W. H. Sher wood, the popular New York pianist, who had come up from Chicago expressly for the concert.

The programme, it must be confessed, would, but for these three artists, have been slightly tame. The choir, which was admirably drilled, was heard to most advantage in Thomas Morley's charming old five part madrigal, "My Bonnie Lass She Smileth," and in two characteristic songs by Lassen, entitled "Evening" and "Only Thou." All three were sung with precision, spirit and a nice attention to light and shade which did credit to the society.

Had the weak and futile "Hymn to Apollo" been omitted from the programme few present would, I think, have regretted it—except the soloists, Miss Katharine Hilke, Miss Emily M. Lawler and Mr. J. H. McKinley, on whom had devolved the thank-less task of interpreting the inanities of Martin Roeder, the composer of the cautata.

Miss Mary Howe was applauded after her contributions, the "Scene" and "Légende" ("Boll" aria) from "Lakmé," The young soprano sang the selection correctly but coldly and without much expression. She took the time far too slowly, but gave the final trills and runs with case and agility.

gave the final trills and runs with case and agility. In response to an encore Miss Howe repeated the close of the aria.

Mr. Sherwood's neat and brilliant touch and admirable technique were shown to advantage in the favorite Polacea in E (op. 73) of Waber, which won him a recall. As an "encore" Mr. Sherwood played i.iszt's "Campanella," mastering the difficulties of the composition apparently without an effort. Perhaps the most interesting feature of the concert was the fragment of Godard's graceful and dainty "Concerto Romantique," the work by which the composer may be said to have first become popular in Parls. M. Planel contributed the adagio and the canzonetta from the concerto. The former is full of delicate charm and sentiment, while the canzonetta is exquisitely fresh and tender in a peculiarly French way. Although somewhat handicapped by the erratic tempi of the conductor the violuist played both movements with delightful taste, feeling and spirit.

In acknowledgment of a hearty recall he played some variations of "The Last Rose of Summer," winning fresh applause by the richness and sweetness of his tone and the perfection of his technique. The concert ended with the finale from "Die Meistersinger."

FRAU NIKISOH SINGS. The third of the concert that the Boston Orchestra give here this winter occurred in Chickering Hall last night, in the presence of the usual large audience and to more than the common tribute of applause. The evening will be remembered with especial pleasure as having introduced to our public Frau Nikisch, the wife of the conductor, who won instant favor by some of the most artistic singing that we have heard this winter.

Frau Nikisch's voice is a mezzo-soprano of no great volume, but of exceptionally pure quality, and it is used with delightful art. In the first of her songs, Raff's exquisite "The Dream King and His Love," this art, however, was not sufficient to atone for lack of power. The song is one of the few of Raft's works which contains aught of dramatic suggestiveners, and, while Frau Nikisch evi

The ground of reversal seems to have been a remark of Judge Barrett characterizing as fraudulent the proceedings by which the bound diverse was procured. The question of fraudulent intent, Judge Andrews says, should have been left to the jury.

As we view it Judge Barrett simply stated a point of law which it was his right and duty to state, rather than expressed an opinion on a question of fact, which it was the sole province of the jury to determine.

The ground of reversal seems to have been dently felt the muste deeply, its highest reaches were somewhat beyond her.

It was in the group of minor masterpieces—Goldmark's "Die Quelle," Jensen's "Am Ufer des Manzares," Brahms' "Vergebilches Staendeben," and particularly in Schuman's "Frühlingenacht," which should have been left to the jury.

As we view it Judge Barrett simply stated a point of law which it was his right and duty to state, rather than expressed an opinion on a question of fact, which it was the sole province of the jury to determine.

to back to the Henschel concerts for anything com-parable to the perfection of Herr Nikisch's accomparametes.

The orchestral part of the concert was notable for a splendidly finished performance of the "Coriolanus" overture and for the really marvellous delicacy of the scherzo of Techaikowsky's F minor symphony, which was nothing less than an orchestral tour de force. We have been accustomed to expect much from these Boston players, especially from the strings, but the scherzo in question surpassed even the highest expectations. Mr. Adamowski, who for some years has been one of Boston's best violinists, gave a fair but not brillish performance of the Saint-Saens "Rondo Capriccioso," and the concertended with Raff's "Im Walde" symphony, the slow movement of which was given with exquisite effect. fluenced the jury to find a verdict of guilty. In fact, an honest, intelligent jury could EVENINGS OF SONG. Miss Louise Gerard and Mr. Albert G. Thies, enor, assisted by Miss Anna Lankow, contralto; Miss Mathiide Wurm, planist, and Dr. Carl Martin, bass, gave an "evening of song" in Steinway Hall last evening. The hall was full and the audience found particular pleasure in the English ballads of Mr. Thies, who has a pleasant voice, and the Ger-man songs of Dr. Martin. Miss Gerard saug Goring-Thomas' "Night in June" and some English ballads in amateurish fashion.

STAGE NEWS AND GOSSIP. Mr. Edward Harrigan yesterday decided to give the widow of the late Charles White, the minstrek, a benefit at his theatre on the afternoon of the 22d inst. The minstrel's family are said to be in straitened circumstances.

Mr. M. B. Curtis, whose tour in "The Schatchen" came to a rather sudden close a few weeks ago, has made arrangements to start out again in about a week with a company of his own. Mr. Curtis says he intends appearing in "Sam'l of Posen."

The benefit which the Manhattan Athletic Club is to give the Actors' Fund at the Garden Theatre to morrow afternoon, when Miss Townsend's burlesque, "The Devil in Search of a Wife," will be given, promises to be very successful. A number of well known actresses are to sell roses in the lobby and several prominent actors are to act as ushers.

Mr. James MacMahon, the Australian manager who has been in the city securing attractions for the Antipodes for over a week, has about concluded arrangements to take one of "The County Fair" companies to Australia in the spring. It is said that Mr. MacMahon has offered Mr. Burgess $10,000 for the rights to produce the play in Aus-

Mr. Ariel Barney telegraphed to the HERALD from Baltimore last night that the report that he had any trouble with Mr. Alf. Hampton, of "The City Directory" company while in Brooklyn last week was untrue. In his despatch Mr. Barney says that he had no misunderstanding or any business or personal trouble with Mr. Hampton whatever.

HARD ON "SUNSET ROCK." [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD,]

WILMINGTON, Del., Jan. 13, 1890 .- While the "Sunset Rock" company played at the opera house here Constable Abele enacted another comedy behind the curtain by making an attachment of the scenery. The claimant was Mr. Thomas Goodyear, scenic artist, of New York, to recover judgment for AN INTERESTING COMBINATION.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD.] St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 13, 1891.-A preliminary neeting was held at the Hotel Ryan this afternoon looking to the consolidation of the forces of Frank Mayo, Louis Aldrich and McKee Rankin. The latthe story remains in the story to so revise them as to give each of the three stars an opportunity to appear and shine to advantage.

HER WARDROBE BURNED.

IRY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD.] Salt Lake City, Utah, Jan. 13, 1891. - In accordance with the wishes of the late Emma Abbott, her maid burned her wardrobe on the any of the diva's death. The maid stood by the door of the furnace, in the basement of the hotel, until all the articles were consumed.

DEATHS IN THE PROFESSION.

Thomas Rainey, an old time actor, died Monday morning at the New York Hospital. Death was caused by pneumonia. Just before dring Rainey drew up a will, in which he said he wished the Actors' Fund to be reimbursed for its trouble from his worldly possessions, and whatever was left over he wished divided between Mr. J. J. Spiss and Mr. Benjamin A. Baker. When Mr. Gurney, of the Actors' Fund, want to examine Mr. Rainey's effects he found that all he possessed in the world was $1.55, and this he gave to the hospital. The deceased will be buried to-day in the Actors' Fund plot in Evergreens Cemetery.

Thomas Muyzelle, a well known stage carpenter, died Sunday of consumption at his late home. No. 141 East Thirteenth street. Mr. Muyzelle was for a number of years connected with the Jersey City Academy of Music. Lately he has been employed at Niblo's. He will be buried to-day in Calvary. day morning at the New York Hospital. Death was Calvary.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

HERALD WEATHER FORECASTS .- The Manitoba storm has moved with increasing force to Ontario, attended by high and stormy southerly and southwesterly winds on the lake region and light snows. It will move east southeast to-day, causing higher temperature in this section and New England, followed by an increase of storminess as the cyclone passes over the New England coast. Temperature fell slightly in the United States yesterday; the chief minimum reported was 6 degrees below zero, at Vincent, Minn.; the chief maximum, 60, at Key West. In this city and suburban districts to-day warmer, partly cloudy weather will probably prevail, with fresh and brisk southerly winds, shifting to southwesterly, followed by inereasing cloudiness and by snow or rain. the Middle States to-day warmer, partly cloudy weather and fresh and brisk southwesterly winds, followed by snow in the lake region, extending east and southeast toward the coasts at night, with rough sea off the coasts to-morrow; and in New England, partly cloudy, warmer weather and fresh southeasterly to brisk southwesterly winds, followed by snow and by high winds off the coasts. On Thursday in this city and section and in New England warmer, partly cloudy weather and brisk southwesterly to northwesterly winds, preceded by snow or rain, and followed by clearing and a cold wave, and on Friday colder, fair weather and fresh northwesterly winds. European steamers now leaving New York will have mostly fresh to strong southwesterly and westerly breezes to the Banks.

EMBARRASSING. She twisted on her rounded wrist The bangles rattling there,

With vacant eye, and on her brow A look of dark despair. "What is it, dear?" I whispered low-My words fell all unheeded— She'd lost the run of her pocket And her handkerchief was needed. IN WASHINGTON, D. C.

The hands of the clock pointed to twenty-five minutes past cleven P. M., but the young man had not yet reached for his hat.

"What is that noise, Miss Gertie?" he asked, with some trepidation.

"I think," replied the Senator's daughter. list ening a moment, "it's papa opening the front door. He will apply the closure in about five minutes."

The young man immediately went into executive session and shortly afterward adjourned.—Chicago Tribune.

EMINENTLY FIT. The eternal fitness of things domands that food for reflection should be served in

A HANDSOME TRAVELLING CLOAK This is a travelling cloak made entirely of helid trope cloth, with wide sleeves reaching to the ground. It is adjusted to the waist by a belt of cloth of gold. Round the neck is a collar of silver fox fur. WHERE THE FUN DOES NOT COME IN. Tobogganing down on a slippery slide blissfullest kind of

But it isn't so funny when you strike a stone And land like head your no

Ex-Congressman John Van Voorhis, ol

Ex-Congressman John van Voornis, of Rochester, is at the Murray Hill Hotel. Mr. Benjamin P.2 Cheney, of Beston, and Mr. Isaac V. Maker, Jr., of Comstocks, N. Y., are at the Brevoort. Mr. P. A. B. Widener and Mr. W. L. Elkins, of Philadelphia, are at the Hoffman. General T. M. Logan, of Virginia, is at the Windsor. Colonel A. S. Buford, of Richmond, Va., and Mr. H. I. Kimball, of Atlanta, are at the Fifti Avenue.

THE TATTOO. Figgs-What is Blaine beating the tattoo for Does be want another war with England?

Diggs-Oh, it's nothing alarming. Blaine is tattoo man! FATE OF THE AMATEUR. St. Peter-Well, young man, how did you get is here? What is your business?

would you allow me to take a shot at the pearly St. Peter-The elevator is just going down; ster right in; we press the button, you do the rest.

Young Man-I am an amateur photographer.

CHILDLIKE, DOUBTLESS, AND BLAND. The Angelus has gone abroad again, And on the faces of the peasants bland A smile is seen which seems to show they ken How they have worked the pockets of this land

A DOLLAR EACH. Only a glint of golden hair Over her sealskin collar But those glints come high, and I'll dare sweat

That this one cost a dollar! APPROPRIATS ENOUGH "Now, Mr. Bronson, we want a Scriptural quotation for our church fair tickets. Can't you think of one?" asked the fair maid.

"Certainly," said Bronson. "How will 'A certain man fell among thieves' do?" A BOSTON PRIMARY. Pedagogue Beacon-Why did you demolish Periles' oyeglasses, Cadwalter?

Cadwalter McBean-He falsely accused me of being intellectually incapable of distinguishing ONE THING AT A TIME. Sophocles McDean (visiting in Chicago)-Just one

Viola Bacon-Well, what do you expect when a more Riss, Viola; those others were such little